

Cardiff Half Marathon
Icon competition
Terms and Conditions

- The winning Cardiff Half Marathon icon design will be used for the Cardiff Half Marathon 2010 and may be used for future Cardiff Half Marathon events. The winner will also have a page on the Cardiff Half Marathon website profiling and crediting them for one calendar year. Runners up will also be included in this page for one calendar year
- By taking part in this competition, you agree that any and all intellectual property rights including, but not limited to, copyright or registered or unregistered trademarks, subsisting in the icon shall be owned by Barnardo's. You shall execute any documents reasonably required by Barnardo's to ensure the transfer of such rights. Failure to do so within three working days will mean that the icon design will not be used as the winning design and the runner-up will be chosen in its place.
- By taking part in this competition you irrevocably and unconditionally waive any and all moral rights in the icon design in any jurisdiction. This means that you give Barnardo's complete control over how the icon design is used and adapted in the future.
- By submitting your entry, you confirm you are happy for us to reproduce your icon design, alongside your name, age and location, on the Cardiff Half Marathon website, if your design is shortlisted.
- To qualify for the competition, you must submit your icon design as a PDF, JPEG or EPS (file size no bigger than 2MB), or as a hard copy by midnight Sunday 7 February. All submissions received after this date will not be considered for the competition.
- Email entries should be sent to cardifficon@barnardos.org.uk. Postal entries should be sent to:
